

Specialist (m/f/d) Cash and Markets and Innovation

The German Red Cross (DRK) is part of the largest humanitarian network in the world. No matter what we do and where we operate, our seven Red Cross principles are always the same: Humanity, impartiality, neutrality, independence, voluntariness, unity and universality guide our actions. You can find out more about our core values here.

At the GRC HQ in Berlin you will shape the future direction of GRC as a National Red Cross Society and a strong partner in the international Red Cross and Red Crescent movement (RK/RH movement). Every day you ensure that people in Germany and worldwide receive help - only according to the measure of need. We are looking to strengthen the International Cooperation Team and the Cash and Voucher Programme of the German Red Cross as soon as possible.

Specialist (m/f/d) Cash and Markets and Innovation

Employment is full-time. The employment offer is initially limited to two years, with the option of an extension. In the "International Cooperation" team, you will provide technical and advisory support for the GRC's cash and voucher programmes. You will support delegations and national companies in further expanding their expertise in cash and vouchers.

You will focus on data management and implementation of new technologies to improve accountability in cash programs (e.g. Red Rose), the development of digital identity and its challenges (data protection and data integrity in cash programs) and coordinate your work with all internal and external partners. Your task in detail:

- You will be the first point of contact for technical support on issues relating to cash information management, data collection and distribution systems for cash and voucher programmes.
- You will ensure that high quality technical advice is available to all programs.
- Provide technical input at all stages (identification, evaluation, analysis, design, planning, implementation, monitoring and evaluation) of GRC data management programmes, including staff implementation and training.
- Support and advice for delegates and employees of the national society (remote and face-to-face)
- Assist in assessing the capacity of the National Society's partners in the programmes and ensuring appropriate methodologies for implementation and capacity building where necessary.
- Participation in the technical working groups of the Red Cross and Red Crescent Movement
- Integration of new technology developments / initiatives and research (e.g. blockchain, peer-to-peer payments, digital identity management, etc.)
- Close cooperation with the global and regional innovation team of IFRC and National Societies; promotion of learning and experience sharing opportunities, peer-to-peers
- Active participation in working groups and conferences on data exchange with Movement and external organisations
- Provide and support internal communication and knowledge sharing within relevant platforms to facilitate the exchange of ideas and opportunities to integrate digital management systems.

Your profile

- University/University of Applied Sciences degree
- At least 4 years work experience in the field of operational humanitarian aid.
- Proven operational experience in Cash and Voucher Assistance
- Proven experience in operative handling of KoBoCollect, ODK, Red Rose, Segovia, etc.
- Sound knowledge of the RK/RH movement and in cooperation with national societies.
- Ability to work in a team and strong will to cooperate
- Fluent in English
- Good IT knowledge (MS-Office 365)
- Willingness to travel abroad for longer periods and suitability for the tropics available

We offer:

- Responsible and versatile work in the spirit of humanity
- A full-time position, initially limited to two years (39 hours per week)
- Fair payment according to DRK reform collective agreement (pay group 12)
- Occupational pension schemes, in-house training opportunities and occupational health management
- Flexible working hours and a working time account
- 29 days holiday per year (basis 5 working days/week)
- Room for your professional and personal development
- A modern workplace with a green courtyard and its own canteen

As an employer, the principles of the Red Cross and Red Crescent movement represent a special obligation for us. We welcome applications from people of any ethnic, social or national origin, gender, religion, age, disability or sexual orientation.
